

LIGHT

By: Teneisha Johnson

Light shines through the thick velvet darkness

Opening blind eyes, or so it seems

The Lord is our light and salvation,

And Jesus the Son, who forever redeems

Christ, in you, the hope of Glory

Colossians 1:27 says

Faith is being sure of what we hope for

And asking for God's favor like Jabez

From the fullness of his grace, we have all received

One blessing after another

To come before his presence, joyfully singing,

And thanking God, the Father

So let your light shine before all men

And do not hide it under a bowl

Let your reverence for God forever be seen

Your purpose-driven destiny now unfolds!
